This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

First species of Figure 1, as shown,

Second species of Figure 1 with a variation as disclosed in paragraph [0025] but not otherwise illustrated,

Third species of Figure 2, as shown,

Fourth species of Figure 3, as shown,

Fifth species of Figure 4, as shown,

Sixth species of Figure 4 with a variation discussed in paragraph [0032] but not otherwise illustrated,

Seventh species of Figure 5,

Eighth species of Figure 6 and

An in-determinant number of additional species contemplated in paragraphs [0034] and [0035] of the specification, but not otherwise illustrated.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 1 appears to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

In the event that the second species of Figure 1 with a variation as disclosed in paragraph [0025] but not otherwise illustrated or the sixth species of Figure 4 with a variation discussed in paragraph [0032] but not otherwise illustrated or one of the indeterminate number of additional species contemplated in paragraphs [0034] and [0035] of the specification, but not otherwise illustrated is elected, a drawing correction showing it in at least as much detail as existing Figures 1-6 is required in response to this action to facilitate examination. It must illustrate the one variant species that is being elected in such a way that it is clear to the Examiner what he is searching for.
